Jeff,

I asked last week about the quarterly report for Fortuna--April 15th
Bruno is back from Europe and asked about the report—he is ready to agree to the new terms starting after April 15th
He also wanted to know how sales were going.

Hope all is well—talk to you soon.

I never said you had agreed, I told Jeff that you were considering his offer, but wanted to have all the facts—I have asked him again—why 30 days late.
Have a great trip, we'll talk when you return.

Dear Skip,

Thank you for the update. I am disappointed because, once again, I was promise the sales report by April 15, then by the end of April, etc. and it never came. Evidently even though I visited Jeff in LA it did not make any difference.

I noticed in your email that you mention that I "am ready to agree to the new terms". I have never said that. I have only said that I am willing to listen and think about it, if and only if I would get the sales report timely, the samples timely and the projections. None of which has happened so I am not even willing to listen at this point in time. Sorry, but you will clearly understand that the basis for a negotiation are just non existing.

Have a great trip to Florid and Japan and we will keep in touch by email.
All the best,
Bruno.
